

Osin Seder:
Creating Order In Times of Disorder
A Masorti Pesach in a Masorti Israeli Home

You're Invited!

Rabbi Yerach and Nava of Ein Kerem invite you to their home--virtually-- to share how they're preparing for a Masorti holiday observance in the time of coronavirus.

Learn how they plan to create order for their Seder and how Masorti is responding across Israel during these unusual days leading up to Pesach.

Nava and Yerach will explore rituals and relate religious themes from the Hagaddah. Feel the warmth and enthusiasm as this young Israeli couple create ways to celebrate and honor tradition at this challenging time.

You'll have a chance to engage, ask questions, share your thoughts and Passover plans with Nava and Yerach and the other participants. It's a great way to support each other during this holiday.

Monday, April 6th from noon to 1:00 p.m. ET
